Woman Charged With Theft.

Mrs. Edna West, a well-dressed and handsome young woman, who stated she was from New York, was arrested yesterday at the corner of Tenth and P streets in Washington, in front of a department store by Detective Weeden on a charge of robbery, and the incident drew a large crowd. Mrs. West's excited denunciation of the detective as trying to kidnap her attracted the attention of Senator Ekins, of West Virginia, who was passing, and he asked the detective why the woman was being detained. Weeden told the Senator that he was a detective and was arresting the woman on suspicion of having taken a pocketbook.

The evidence connecting Mrs. West with the taking of the pocketbook is said to be entirely circumstantial. A customer at the store Wednesday had her pocketbook snatched from her hand, while she was on the second floor. A woman was seen by a clerk, it was learned afterward, emptying a pocketbook of its contents in the ladies' room on the third floor. While Mrs. West was in the store yesterday she was identified as the one who had been seen emptying the pocketbook Wednesday, and her arrest followed. Mrs. West states that she is innocent of the charge. When searched by the matron at the House of Detention the sum of $112 was found upon her.

Mutual Crimes.

Two nights ago two men entered the home of Frank Belcher, at Kingsport, in Sullivan county, Tenn., 20 miles west of Bristol, just as the family were retiring for the night. Mr. and Mrs. Belcher and their 14-year-old daughter were the only members of the family in the room at the time. With drawn revolvers the strangers compelled Belcher to throw up his hands, and threatening to kill him if he moved, one of the men seized Mrs. Belcher and criminally assaulted her in the presence of her husband and daughter. Following this crime the man held a revolver over Belcher while his associates assaulted Mrs. Belcher in like manner. The story of the crime was withheld for the time through fear of lynching, and it was not until yesterday that it became generally known in the town of Kingsport. Excitement and indignation prevail, and advice from Kingsport last night are to the effect that if the two men are discovered they will certainly be lynched. Belcher and his family came to Kingsport recently from Campbell county, Tennessee.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that has been treated with Bucklin's Astringent. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, 25c.

Hail Storm in Florida.

A severe wind and hail storm struck Jacksonville, Fla., at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, doing considerable damage. The tug Annie B. capsize and Captain Sloan was drowned. The driver of a milk wagon was killed by a "live" wire. Glass windows on the west side of the buildings were demolished and several buildings were unroofed. A dozen or more horses, lashed by the large hailstones, ran away, some of them crashing into and shattering plate-glass show windows and others running into the river. Dixie Land Amusement Park suffered several thousand dollars' damage. Some of the ballstones measured one and a half inches in diameter. Numerous small craft in the river were either beached or swamped. The Wheelmen's clubhouse was wrecked.

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poison enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package.

For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's label—and none in the medicine, else it must be law on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is used by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists.
